1000 years of St Osburg's

There is a Civic Celebration commemorating St Osburg on Friday 9th September beginning from the Lady Godiva statue in Broadgate at 10.30am, then from the Lady Godiva Statue, walking to the Priory Gardens and placing flowers at the statue of Our Lady of Coventry, then on to the Cathedral for a ceremony at 11.00am. All are welcome and there are refreshments in the Cathedral afterwards.

On Sunday the 11th of September, there is a Mass at St Osburg's with the Archbishop at 11.30am. This is being organised by the deanery. There are to be at least five representatives from each parish. If you want to go please feel welcome to do so. The Anglican Bishop of Coventry will be attending along with the Lord Mayor and other Civic guests. There will be a reception and refreshments following the Mass.

Painting

The sacristy has been painted this week, down to the hard work and effort of Jim McLoughlin, Liz and Jim Mayne, Carmel & John O'Sullivan thank you for doing such a marvellous job! Thanks also to Kathleen Ryan for providing freshly home baked scones, some of which found their way to Fr Bernard! Carmel also painted the garage door, a regal blue colour. It was good to see the kindness and generosity of time and talents given for the parish.

Rota's are available to be picked up this week, for counters, 100's Club collectors, readers, and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. Many thanks for helping with these important contributions to parish life.

Young at Heart

This will resume in the Parish Hall on Thursday 8th September after the morning Mass. The 8th is the feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a good day to meet. New members are always welcome. Come along for tea, chat, friendship, making new friends, and other activities.
