Yellow Forms

If you have been away, you may not be aware of these yellow forms. We are trying to create a parish directory for the parish priest's use. This directory will be a list of names and contact details of all those who have or would like an active role within the two parishes. It will make life easier for contacting people or sending them information.

Please note, due to Child Protection policy that if you are under the age of 18, then the form must have the parents'

The new surrounds for the Stations of the Cross Corpus Christi

The Stations of the Cross in Corpus Christi are in the process of being framed. The frames are designed to set off the Stations and highlight not only their beauty but also their importance in our Catholic devotion. The small gap at the top is deliberate. In years to come someone may want to remove the Stations to be repaired and repainted. The Stations are hooked on and need that little space to be removed. The Stations of the Cross are the same design as those in St. Osburg's and Christi the King in Coventry. Also in the little Pieta Chapel we are in the process of making it feel more like a Chapel. We have added a little moulding to the windows and Pieta altar. We will paint a

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament A Day of Prayer for Vocations Corpus Christi Tuesday 20th September

The Day of Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament is an annual event in both our parishes, and all parishes across the Archdioceses of Birmingham. Corpus Christi's date was Thursday 22nd of September, but we will move the date to Tuesday 20th September. From 9am until 6pm the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed. We will need volunteers to sit with the Lord for half hour intervals. There will be a form to sign at the back of church to indicate which time you can accompany the Lord. Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist are asked especially to be generous with their time as this is a good time for them to reflect on their ministry. Also it would be nice to see our parents calling in to the church after they have dropped their children off at school,

A Child of Mine

(Thoughts on last weeks homily)

I will lend you, for a little time, a child of mine, He said.
For you to love the while he lives,
and mourn for when he's dead.

It may be six or seven years, or twenty-two or three.
But will you, till I call him back, take care of him for Me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden you,
and should his stay be brief.

You'll have his lovely memories, as solace for your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay, since all from earth return.

But there are lessons taught down there,
I want this child to learn.

I've looked the wide world over,
in search for teachers true.

And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes,
I have selected you.

Now will you give him all your love,
nor think the labour vain.

Nor hate me when I come to take him home again?

I fancied that I heard them say,
'Dear Lord, Thy will be done!'
For all the joys Thy child shall bring,
the risk of grief we'll run.

We'll shelter him with tenderness,
we'll love him while we may,
And for the happiness we've known,
forever grateful stay.

But should the angels call for him,
