On Wednesday at 10 30am we celebrate the final school Mass of the year. The children and staff work very hard during the year, and the school is a very happy one. Thank you to all who work so well in providing a wonderful environment for learning, both academic and spiritual. This year we say a fond farewell to our Head Teacher Mrs Carmel Farrelly who is retiring after being with the school for so many years. We thank her for her dedication, and we celebrate her contribution to the school. We will miss her greatly. As a parish we wish her every happiness as she begins a new chapter of her life. We are delighted that Mrs Grainne Griffiths has been appointed as the new Head Teacher, and we pray for her as she takes up the appointment from September.
