Hi, my name is Antony Kariuki. In the coming month (August 2019) I will be leaving to Zengguofan School in Hunan, China for a gap year with the charity Project Trust. During this time, I will be teaching English to young people in need of support, hoping to improve their prospects. For this to happen, I need to fundraise £6200- I have already managed to raise £4300, however I would like to ask for your support to help me get closer to the end goal. I feel that with this action, I will be able to help drive positivity in this world, loving thy neighbour as God has loved me. Please feel free to donate money through collections, through this fundraising link or you could also get in direct contact with me via mobile or email. Thanks. IICSA Update

This week the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse (IICSA) has published its report on the Archdiocese of Birmingham. We apologise to all victims and survivors of child sex abuse. We hope that with this Inquiry they feel that they have been listened to. Even so, words are not enough. We are committed to continuing to improve our safeguarding procedures and to listen to and learn from victims and survivors. Past failings must never happen again. The diocesan response to the report can be found at <https://www.birminghamdiocese.org.uk/> If you have a safeguarding matter to report please contact the Archdiocese safeguarding team on 0121 230 6240 or via email: safeguarding@rc-birmingham.org.
