Hospital Pastoral Care

Fr Paul Burch, the full time Catholic priest chaplain to the hospital has been appointed to All Souls, as Parish Priest. It looks like the diocese will not be replacing him at the hospital, and the responsibility for the pastoral care will have to be shared by the deanery priests. (not all of them will offer cover) At present the deanery were covering days off and holidays, but now it will mean every day needing to be covered. If you are going into hospital please let me know, and because of data protection you will have to let me know which ward also. I will visit you at hospital if you let me know when you will be in. I will be still covering 24 hour periods, which do involve night calls, the difference will be those days will increase. It is sad that there will not be a Catholic priest present, and working full time in the hospital, there is a vital ministry there that takes time to build up and flourish. Fr Paul has been an excellent chaplain at the hospital and he will be missed.

Hall Works

After the survey report for the parish which looked at overall maintenance of the property; church, house and hall, a toilet for the disabled was needed for the hall. A small grant from the national lottery was obtained, which will cover the putting in of the toilet. When work began it was realised that the drains had been sealed and was the reason for the numerous backing up of waste. Due to this, waste also has collected in the porch under the floor, so more work needs carrying out to fix the problems. The report flagged up the need for insurance purposes, for the hall to require one set of keys kept with a named key holder. Steps will be taken to make this so. Any donations towards the work needed in church is always appreciated.

Please pray for the elderly, the housebound & sick especially;
Netta McNiff, Gerry Burke, Louise Turley, Teresa Olivero, John Bratt, Delia Forbes, Imelda Cunningham, Peter Gordon, Bridie Cave, Theresa, Joanne Gilsean, Peggy Crean, Michael Moten, Lelia Kierans, Brian Burke, Cheryl Kenny, Sarah Higgins, and Julia O'Keefe and all in care homes, or hospital. May they know Jesus' healing touch. For the recently dead in the parish especially Josephine Rooney, Bridget Jordan, Peter McBean and Gerard McKeever
