Mystery Of Faith

Seeking simplicity, found in blest communion
Love shown in powerful words of consecration
We kneel to behold a mystery beyond fathoming
A sacred moment that confirms all our believing
A trembling hand, one containing all sweetness
Offers a sustenance, given in fragrant gentleness
We taste to see, while we still touch the thin air
Bowling to faith, to believe in his presence there
Emptying our ingratitude, pouring away each sin
Allowing God's all consuming grace to flood on in
A nourishment of understanding and wellbeing
Washes over our mortal frames, our fate sealing
Silently we contemplate this miraculous sacrifice
Content to believe, for mystery and awe will suffice

HOLY FAMILY PARISH CENTRE
 NATIONAL LOTTERY GRANT

In 2018 the Parish buildings were inspected by the Diocese. The report that followed highlighted several areas that needed to be addressed and rectified. One of the most urgent areas was the installation of a toilet for the less abled in the Parish Centre; without which the Centre could not be used for public use and hire.

In May this year we applied to the National Lottery for funding. This application was successful and during August this year, work began to install the toilet for the less abled. All works have been carried out by approved builders H Sykes and Sons.
